Message

It gives me immense pleasure to note that Oil Spill India (OSI) in association with the Directorate General of Shipping is organizing fourth edition of International Conference & Exhibition on 11th and 12th August, 2016 at Mumbai on the Theme “Commitment, Synergy, Excellence” where a number of international experts, speakers/panelists and delegates from different countries would be under one roof and exchange their views on Oil Spill Response (OSR) preparedness, developments, methodologies, techniques and models used for combating spills of any kind of source.

I extend my heartiest felicitations to OSI for organizing the fourth edition of the prestigious International Conference & Exhibition and wish all the success in its endeavours.
